MAJORITY OF WOMEN

Windoor Star quotes W. Catilale, superintendent of agencies of the Mutual Life of Canada as indicating that there are more women than men in Canada. Commenting on this the Star says:
"Under Canada's system of marriage there can only be the same number of wives as husbands. We are a monogamous country, and polygamy is forebidden. The result is, that many women must go through Life without a husband, and in most cases."

THE HOME FORUM

Discussing the Events of the Day; Home Goods and General News Topics as revealed by the Home Newspaper-emder the evening lamp-and comments Grave and Gay. Supervised by The Lamplighter.

TWO WAYS OF TREATING ONE SUBJECT is illustrated in verse below, the subject being "When we are old"—treated pessimistically and optimist-ically. Here 'tis—Note the difference in treatment: WHEN WE ARE OLD

When we are old and weary of our dreaming, Some uself approaching day, What will it maket then that stars are gleaming Above the hilliop way? When mocking age has bound our vagrant feet, Little we'll care that gypying is succei.

When we are old, and tired of all but sleeping,

When we are old, and wrea vy
Or making idle moan,
Little we'll care that lyric winds are creeping
Among the flowers, fresh blown;
Then love will pass, and youth, and bright desire
And wake within us no responsive fire.

So let us, while we yet have heart for caring That Spring is on the way,

While Youth and Love add Sweetness to our faring

Go gypsying today!
The fires of life will all too swiftly butn;
The Springtime of the heart knows no return.

-Constance Davies Woodcore

WHEN WE ARE OLD

When we are old and weary of Life's toiling, Some restful, quiet day, We'll then have time to watch the stars appearing

Like tapers on our way;

When restful age has eased our weary Jeet,
We then shall feel that life indeed is sweet.

When we are old we shall have time for sleeping,
We shall not moon
Or all the little cares that life is sleeping
For youth alone;
Then, Youth's vain passions and its base desires
Will burn no more like slow and smouldering fires.

So let us not as life is onward faring

Grieve for the passing years,
Nor feel within the heart a sad despairing
And lierce resentful tears;
For age is not the burden that it seems,
But Wisdom's pathway to the Land of Dreams.

WHEN THE BRITISH LION PURRED LIKE & WHEN THE BRITISH LION PURRED LIKE a kitten and lay down with the lamb, the German Eagle, screamed, and the Italian Mouse rose right up on its hind legs. Now that the British Lion is doing a kjt of roaring the German Eagle is pulling in its claws and the Italian Mouse is doing a bit of purring itself. How many times must Europe be reminded that the British Lion always wins the last and deciding battles which count infinitely more than the preliminary tairmibles.

The Story of OD and AD

OD and AD were machinists many years ago. One day, at a fair, they saw a buggy with an engine in it. They saw many ways to improve it, and each decided to build an automobile. But when it came time to sell their first cars, OD and AD had different ideas.

and the AUTOMOBILE

How OD Tried to Sell His First Automobile

OD invited all his friends and neighbors to his house. He drove his automobile around the block and gave them a ride. They were thrilled. They mental to buy it. But when they learned that it cost $3,000, not one of OD's friends could pay such a high price.

How AD Sold 10 Automobiles

AD had also spent nearly $3,000 in building his first car." He knew that only a few people could afford so high a price, and to find them he must show his car to a great many. So he advertised that he would demonstrate his car the following Saturday aftermoon. People came from miles around. AD ran his car up and down the street. Afterward, ten men wanted it. AD bold them that by making ten can be could cut costs and reduce his price to $2,500. So he hired several men, rented a building, and started making more and better automobiles.

How OD Finally Sold a Car

OD heard that AD had sold ten cars, so he decided to try again. When his second car was finished, it had cost him almost as much as the first. He showed it to as many people as he could see and after a long time sold it for just about what it had cost him. In the next five years OD built several more automobiles, but always by the time his cars were finished AD was making better cars for lower prices.

How AD Sold 10,000 Automobiles

AD decided that if he could make cars by the hundreds, he could lower the cost and add still more improvements. So he appointed agents and advertised in other cities. In this way he was able to tell the story of his car to thousands and thousands of people neither hen or his agents had ever seen. The more agents he appointed, and the moré headvertised, the more people came in to try his car, and the more cars he sold. And the more cars he built them, and the less they cost.

By 1911, AD was making such a good car for $1,500 that he sold 10,000 that year.

Why OD Gave Up Trying to Sell Automobiles

OD now saw that he could not possibly make cars at low cost by building only a few each year. Nor could he sell enough to make more by telling people about them one at a time. So he decided to go back to work as a mechanic. He applied at AD's factory and was promptly employed.

How AD Sold Millions of Automobiles

AD now realized that there were millions of people who would buy his automobiles if the prices were only lower. He also knew that if he could build hundreds of thousands of cars a year, he could make them better and at less cost. So he chalared his factory, employed more men, and advertised to millions of people all over the country. By 1921, he wax making a fine-looking car with a six-cylinder motor and a self-starter. And the princ had been reduced to $1,000.

AD's profit per car was now very small. But he sold so many cars that his business was successful. And, as prices became lower and lower, millions of people who had never dreamed they could afford automobiles were able to own and enjoy them.

By 1938, AD was making the best and finest looking car he had ever built,—and the price was only $750.

AD Tells OD How It Came About That

ONE DAY OD went into AD's office at the factory. OD said, "Remember the time we saw the horseless carriage the fair? Who would have believed that in 30 years almost every family would have an automobile!"

AD said, "It never would have been possible without advertising. All the advances in manufacturing would have been futile without advertising to tell the story. As it helped us to sell more and more cars, we were able to make them still better and sell them at lower prices. As a result, the advantages of an automobile are now enjoyed by people of small means just as they are by the well-to-do."

"But you spend millions for advertising," said OD.

"Yes," said AD. "But we sell so many cars that our advertising costs only about $15 per car. That is not much when you remember that in 30 years the average price of a car has been reduced by more than $1,500. So, advertising has really helped to reduce prices and year after year has helped make it possible for millions of people to have better cars for less money."

[Car prices given above for 1911, 1921, and 1938 are the approximate average of new car prices in these years.]

COMPENSATION FOR WAR LOSSES

COMPENSATION FOR WAR LOSSES
British will compensate Britism for loss by death and destruction of property by entry
That is the practical British way of atthe charge of the process of the control of the contracking a problem which loomed during the Great War. Individuals cannot afford to bear very bases are control of the consupport. Here is a case where the individual control much help himself or herisf and the state rightly will poy such compensation. It is merely another would on the compensation, for such as the circumstances will part into, a natural decision for no nation knows how it will be financially effer a war.
Under the British points of the conbox no bosts on which to decide premiums. It is a justifiable more because in wer the ottock is not on a causal included but on the states and the premium with one would be compensated to some degree.

This is a proctical step which cannot but meet universal opproved.

Out of the night that covers me Black as the Pit from pole to pole, I thank whatever gods may be For my unconquerable soul.

In the fell clutch of circumstance
I have not winced or cried aloud.
Under the bludgeoning of chance
My head is bloody, but unbowed

Beyond this place of wrath and tears Loom but the Horror of the shade, And yet the menace of the years Finds, and shall find, me unafraid.

It matters not how strait the gate
How charged with punishments

In the early days Canadian trade was conducted in its simplest form. There was little money in circulation; settlers exchanged furs and the produce of their farms for simple necessities of local manufacture and rare luxuries imported from abroad.

As the fabrious resources of the country became known, the tide of colonization swept inland. Population increased and trade developed between adjoining communities. Trails became highways; the canoe, bateau and Durham boat gave way to the steamer; the pack horse and wagon were supplanted by the railroad; and a steady stream of furs, timber, staves, wheat and flour flowed toward the ports for shipment overseas.

Each phase of development brought new and diversified demands for commodities and services. Accurate up-to-date news of available goods, of current prices and markets became increasingly important to consumers, producers and merchants alike.

The newspapers recognized the need and were quick to provide this essential information. Every issue recorded the current fluctuations in pric and supplies, the arrival and departure of ships and all other data of vital importance to trade.

Maintenance of this service and extension of its scope to meet each new development have contributed much to the expansion and prosperity of Canadian trade.

Today the daily newspapers serve Canadian trade more thoroughly and effectively than ever-Every day throughout the country more than two million copies are distributed and read. Their pages provide a complete and reliable guide to markets upon which the business men of Canada depend.

The Story of OD and AD

OD and AD were machinists many years ago. One day, at a fair, they saw a buggy with an engine in it. They saw many ways to improve it, and each decided to build an automobile. But when it came time to sell their first cars, OD and AD had different ideas.

and the AUTOMOBILE

How OD Tried to Sell His First Automobile

OD invited all his friends and neighbors to his house. He drow his automobile around the block and gave them a ride. They were thrilled. They control to buy it. But when they learned that it cost $3,000, not one of OD's friends could pay such a high price.

How AD Sold 10 Automobiles

AD had also spent nearly $5,000 in building his firet earl; let have that only a few poople could afford so high a price, and to find them he must show his car to a great many. So he advertised that he would demonstrate his car the following Saturday afternoon. People came from miles around. AD ran his car upand down the street. Afterward, ten men wanted it. AD told them that by making ten cars he could cut costs and reduce his price to $2,500. So he hird several men, rented a building, and started making more and better automobiles.

How OD Finally Sold a Car

OD heard that AD had sold ten cars, so he decided to try again. When his second car was finished, it had cost him almost as much as he first. He showed it to as many people as he could see and after a long time sold it for just about what it had cost him. In the next five years OD built several more automobiles, but always by the time his cars were finished AD was making better cars for lower prices.

How AD Sold 10,000 Automobiles

AD decided that if he could make cars by the hundreds, he could lower the cost and add still more improvements So he appointed agents and advertised in other cities. In this way he was able to tell the story of his car to thousands and thousands of people neither he nor his agents had ever seen. The more agents he appointed, and the more had evertised, the more people came in to tryh is car, and the more than the care he hold. And the more cars he built, the better he built them, and the less they cost.

he built them, and the less they cost.

By 1911, AD was making such a good car for $1,500 that he sold 10,000 that year.

Why OD Gave Up Trying to Sell Automobiles

OD now saw that he could not possibly make cars at low cost by building only a few each year. Nor could he sell enough to make more by telling people about them one at a time. So he decided to go back to work as a mechanic. He applied at AD's factory and was promptly employed.

How AD Sold Millions of Automobiles

AD now realized that there were millions of people who would buy his automobiles if the prices were only lower. He also knew that if he could build hundreds of thousands of cars a year, he could make them better and at less cost. So he enlarged his factory, employed more men, and advertised to millions of people all over the country. By 1921; he was making a fine-looking car with a six-eylinder motor and a self-stater. And the price had been reduced to $1,000.

AD's profit per car was now very small. But he sold so many cars that his business was successful. And, as prices became lower and lower, millions of people who had never dreamed they could afford automobiles were able to own and enjoy them.

By 1938, AD was making the best and finest looking car he had ever built—and the price was only $750.

AD Tells OD How It Came About That

ONE DAY OD went into AD's office at the factory. OD said, "Remember the time we saw the horseless carriage at the fair? Who would have believed that in 30 years almost every family would have an automobile!"

AD said, "It never would have been possible without advertising. All the advances in manufacturing would have been futile without advertising to tell the story. As it helped us to sell more and more cars, we were able to make them still better and sell them at lower prices. As a result, the advantages of an automobile are now enjoyed by people of small means just as they are by the well-to-do."

So Many Families Now Have Automobiles

"But you spend millions for advertising," said OD.\

"Yes," said AD. "But we sell so many cars that our writising costs only about $15 per car. That is not much when you remember that in 30 years the average price of a car has been reduced by more than $1,500. So, advertising has really helped to reduce prices and year after year has helped make it possible for millions of people to have better cars for less money."

[Car prices given above for 1911, 1921, and 1938 are the approximate average of new car prices in these years.]

SHE SAW DEATH COMING She saw death coming down the road, Deliberate, debonair; She threw the wicket open wide And hummed a welcome air, waited tremulous in the shade For his footstep on the stone, With a monk's-hood for his boutonniere, A rose for her own.

But he turned in at her neighbors—they Were giving a garden tea From her lonely seat she heard the clink And chatter enviously.

No one poured him a gracious cup— He stood outside the cheer. One coldly asked what his errand was But he did not wait to hear.

He bowed, plucked him a bud, and left, It seemed so strange a Whim That he should go unwelcome there; She had expected him.

CLEANLINES IN CATE OCCURRENCE SERVICE expression. An expression frequently used it "A Man's House is His Castle." Few people know that this expression was originated over three centuries ogo by Sir Edward Cole, Chiel Justice of England, who was a great lover or liberty, although he was accused of being cranky, cruel, and crude, at times. Anothe expression, common in dramatic, circles, con-cense "Tonorrow the Chaot Walks", which being translated into everyday Conodianesé means "tonorrow is poyday". This is sold to go back to Shokespear's time, when he managed his own company and managed to play Hamlet at the same time, also acting as paymaster for his company of players. Shoke-speare played the Ghost in Hamlet and the actors convected the living most with pow-tactors convected the living most with powspecie played the chost in Homile and the octors connected the living ghost with poyday, — so the phrase was born: "Tomorrow the Ghost Wolks". Many other slogans and catch-phrases are used frequently but few know of the origin, or care, probably, although it is interesting to know just where and why these familiar phrases originated.

Thrilling Romance in the Far North

Barrett Willoughby's stirring new serial of picturesque Alaska...!

The Captive Bride

A brilliant author writes an inspired tale of the land she loves, her own Alaska. Glacier streams, milk-white in forests of vivid green; majestic mountains capped with snow; dazzling brilliance of the Northern Lights form the colorful background of this intensely, human story of a lovely girl's quest of happiness.

Join beautiful Denise Keith in her exciting transition from the shelter of an exclusive home in San Francisco to the rugged fastnesses of the Stikine River valley, a land of haunting beauty deep

NO TROUBLE OVER ANTARCTICA

There will be no crisis over the ownership of 80,000 square miles in Antarctica, onnexed for the United States by Lacoli Ellowerth last whiter, and 16 which he later added more to bring the total up to 48,000 square milles. AN OLD-FASHIONED VALENTINE

I found it 'mong the keep-sakes

of many years ago—
A fragrant, faded missive
With words of love aglow;
A mystic air enshrined it,
It seemed to speak to me
Of youth and love and laughter
As unchanging as the sea.

Its leaves with age were yellow,
But it was a dainty thing of lace and faintest perfume—
A message it did bring
Of old-time love and lover
Far in the days long past,
Breathing the old-time token
Of a love that e'er shall last.

So through the changing ages
Though winter winds blow shrill,
Tho' snow drifts deep are lying
On forest glade and hill,
In spite of winter tempest,
The fires of low will shine
Deep in the hearts of lovers
When comes St. Valentine.

ding a Valentine is an old custom which began simply . . . one just sent a little message of love or esteem. Then the Victorians got hold of it and there was a sharp rise in the lace paper and ribbon market.

But now, how that custom has expanded! The shops are filled with a bewildering array of lovely tokens, all designed to express that same old sentiment to some one on February 14th.

Of course you'd like to send "something different," but hat? The more you walk around and look, the dixxier you get. Why not relax? Sit down and study the advertising pages of this newspaper. Here, you'll find the stores' own selections of the most appropriate gifts, and at prices to fit

Cupid only offered a message of three little words, but on these pages you'll find many ways to say "I Love You." . MRS. M. S. DAVIS,

MOTORISTS-KE RITT

MOTOR VEHICLE PERMITS DRIVERS' LICENSES EXPIRE MARCH 31st

Your Automobile, Trailer, Truck or Motorcycle Must Bear the New 1939 Plates on April 1st

This year there will be no further extension of time allowed for registering motor vehicles securing drivers' licenses after the expiration date, March 31st, 1939.

In past years Motor Vehicle Permits and Drivers' Licenses expired on December 31st. In order to afford greater convenience and service to motorists in Ontario the Government has extended the expiration date three months.

This extra period of time should, we feel, be ample for every motorist, and this year refore, there will positively be no extension of time past March 31st.

Your prompt co-operation and action purchasing new plates and securing your erator's license is therefore expected.

Secure your new plates at the earliest possible moment. By postponing action you run the risk of being turned away in the rush of the last day or two, and thus become liable to a fine. You can save yourself worry and time wasted standing in line if you will decide now to purchase your new 1939 will decide now to purchase your ne plates well in advance of March 31st.

PUBLIC COMMERCIAL VEHICLE LICENSES ALSO EXPIRE MARCH 31st

All trucks and trailers operated as Public Commercial Vehicles must display P.C.V. 1839 License Plates after March 31st, and while this is the regular expiry date for this type of license, no extension of time will be granted.

TO INSTIL LOVE OF MUSIC

McGill University, Montreal, seeks to in-spire 3000 students with appreciation of music and a room has been fitted up in the Conservatory of Music. A preceptor is to be in charge at all times, who will play any sort of music an reguest, ancient or modern, clas-sical or light. Music of all countries will be heard at will.

sical or light. Music of all countries will be heard at will.

The university hopes that students gener-ally will be induced to use the room so that music may be instilled. The cost of the room as fitted up is several thousand dollars, bome by private donations and funds from the Cornegie Trust.

Music-lovers everywhere frops that the aims of those behind the movement will be realized. The scheme looks like one of the best heard of to instil a low of music in every

"It always pays to back a winning horse"

says MR. J. D. FITZPATRICK

Having used different methods of advertising, such as, handbills, premiums, personal letters and our Local Daily, I believe I have had a fair chance to jodge what from of advertising brings the best results. After eighteen years experience, I am convinced that there is no rival to advertisements in the Local Daily.

It has been my experience too, that the products If has been my experience too, that the products which are the quickest to move off our shelves which are those of manufacturers who ALSO advertise in our Local Daily. This being rune, it's only natural for us to push these products through preferred displays and mention in our own advertising; In other words it always pays to back a winning horse."

SO CALLED BREAD WAR IN TRENTON has received considerable attention in the press, and it looks as if the bakers in our sispress, and it looks as it the bakers in our sis-ter town have been having a strenuous time lately facing an invasion of outside bakers similar to the situation in Belleville. Trentor Courier Advocate summarizes the situation as follows:

as follows:

Trenton has been in the throes of a bread wer during the post week when the price of "the staff of life", fell to a new low. Reports of bread at three cents a loof or two looves for a nickle were followed by later reports that grocers on the east side of the river where the war is alleged to have started were giving bread with each nurchose of a doller or over.

What Started the Trouble

Trenton is the distributing centre for the bread makers of Stirling, Naponee, Kingston and Consecon. It is alleged that these bakers cut prices to get the big share of the trade share of the trade.

That was the beginning. So prices were cut and cut some more and through it Trenton bakers took the rop as they were forced to bake bread just for the fun of it to meet this unfair and unethical competition.

Stories of farmers buying bread for poul-try feed have been rife but have not been substantiated.

End In Sight

By Tuedoy the tension in the bread war had ened and bread had reached four cents a loaf. Trenten bakers, of course, ore blaming the town council for permitting such a stote of affairs, as a bread by-law was passed here last year to give them pretection against authied distributions of cul-throat prices. But the bakers are not the only sufferers in this regard, no one has ever said a word for the town's printers who for twelve months or the year must get along and pay wages and toxes against "sweet-shop" remithed to secure local the by shops in Torento, Ottowa, and elsewheres. BIG BUSINESS ADS
FROM SMALL ADS

Small newspaper advertisements, planned intelligently, used frequently, can boost sales for any advertiser. It all depends on how the job is done. Take Oakite, for example, whose merchandising manager, Mr. Conolly, says: "Results from our small space newspaper campaigns have been so satisfactory that we've increased our newspaper appropriation each year."

Oakite uses small newspaper advertisements steadily from January right through the year...as long range guns in their selling artillery and as shock troops to be sent in overnight when needed. Insertions vary from one, two, three or more times weekly depending on circumstances.

The pulling power of Oakite's small newspaper advertisements is shown in many ways. For instance, this year was the first time Oakite did any newspaper advertising during the month of January. Using the same size advertisements, retaining the same distribution, Oakite registered a 37% sales increase in January, 1938, over January, 1937...And sales have been climbing ever since.

Oakite, like so many other concerns, has found that newspaper advertising sells more goods to more people... quickly, surely, economically. That's what makes newspapers the primary advertising medium.

A Statement

TO THE BUREAU OF ADVERTISING:

"Oakite sales, for the first six months of 1938, are, to put it moderately, tremendously ahead of last year, and in many territories the first six months' sales have come close to the entire last year's business. We're looking forward to the largest sales year in our history.

"And this is largely attributable to our persistent use of small advertisements in newspapers...Results from our small space newspaper campaigns have been so satisfactory that we've increased our newspaper appropriation each year. This year it's 67% over 1937...and we're using papers from California to New York..."

TAKING A CHANCE OFTEN LEADS TO VICTORY — but having the courage of your convictions is not taking a chance, as a general rule it is playing a sure thing. Stanton B. Scholars in the Middle Ages argued for centuries over how many angels could dance on the point of a needle. It was a useless ques-tion . . . but how many Canadians are supported on tobacco leaves? That is an intensely practical question.

Imagine, if you can, a convention of all the people in this country, and their dependents, who are supported by the tobacco industry... All the farmers and their help... All who work in processing plants where the tobacco is aged and mellowed . . . All the men and women who work in tobacco factories . . . All the wholesalers with their salesmen and office staffs . . . All the store keepers with their clerks . . .

Why, such a convention would need a hall big enough to seat over 300,000 people! As many people as live in Vancouver; twice as many as in Quebec City . . .

in its simplest form. There was little money in eirculation; settlers exchanged furs and the produce of their farms for simple necessities of local manufacture and rare luxuries imported from

As the fabulous resources of the country became known, the tide of colonization swept inland. Population increased and trade developed between adjoining communities. Trails became highways; the canoe, bateau and Durham boat gave way to the steamer; the pack horse and wagon were. supplanted by the railroad; and a steady stream of furs, timber, staves, wheat and flour flowed toward the ports for shipment overseas.

Each phase of development brought new and diversified demands for commodities and services. Accurate up-to-date news of available goods, of current prices and markets became increasingly important to consumers, producers and merchants

The newspapers recognized the need and were quick to provide this essential information. Every issue recorded the current fluctuations in prices and supplies, the arrival and departure of ships and all other data of vital importance to trade.

Maintenance of this service and extension of its scope to meet each new development have contributed much to the expansion and prosperity of Canadian trade.

Today the daily newspapers serve Canadian trade more thoroughly and effectively than ever-Every day throughout the country more than two million copies are distributed and read. Their pages provide a complete and reliable guide to markets upon which the business men of Canada depend.

The purchase of your product starts when the prospect reads your message in the Local Daily

"It always pays to back a winning horse"

"Having used different methods of arternung, such as, handbills, premiums, personal letters and our Local Daily, I believe I have had a fair chance to judge what form of advertising brings the best results. After eighteen years experience, I am convinced that there is no rival to advertisements in the Local Daily.

It has been my experience too, that the products which are the quickest to move off our abelves are those of manufacturers who ALSO advertise in our Local Daily. This being true, it's only natural for us to push these products through perferred diplays and mention in our own advertising. In other words it always pays to back a winning hore.

THIS MONTH OF FEBRUARY

This mouth of February after it is gone will be a few day's wonder and may be remembered longe set of all the mouths. It is the mouth in which the depth of winter season is plumbed, mercury drops low generally, there are all sorts of weather.

The weatherman was a good natured fellow last the season is proposed to the season of the season of the season is proposed to the season of the season of winter season is plumbos, metury usup-mentally, there are also distanted follow late, metallic plumbos and the season of the con-tractions, one the rainly season was over. De-ter was not severe and January was some too-teed the season of the season of the con-pleted all kinds of the low match. One was been all kinds of the contraction of the periodic plumbos of the contraction of the power-disc" the cold registered at the power-disc, and the cold power-disc power-tic flumbos of the cold power-disc power-tic flumbos the cold power-disc power-tic flumbos thing can be said of the menta-tic flumbos of the cold power-disc power-disc

See almost of summer, but men was of rain or alset, here is another thing about February which sees. It is the unpleasant mostly just before some weather, for March is at hand, and then the persiarre despite plunges will register higher a February. Snow will melt in a few weeks in if the month cones in like a lion or like the first of war who gave it, his name and even if it is of war who gave it, his name and even if it is not the property of the state of if the month comes in like a lion or like the of war who gave it his name and even if it history and goes out like a lion too. The post this much conflictence in nature that spring is sing, but so far away, when asp begins to run, when the warming amosphers will be the for-when the warming amosphers will be the for-which the land which has been in history of winter, by sparrows, startings and other winter the. To use Shelley's words "If winter comes, spring be far behind?"

The average man of North America is to be unde appear taller and more stender. So the tail-out have ordained for him a streamline suit with leg lims long and vaint high. Color will be splaided upon the usually sembre garb of the matter of the openion. Of the openion of the other process. Of course the tail will not be taller, but Illusion will make him spem so.

THE EUROPEAN SCENE

THE EUROPEAN SCINE
There is little doubt that news of the vast British reamonment program which is now under way has counted swinting concern in Gemony and Italy; it is to be noted that the Gemone economic issue was roised by Choncellor Hitler in his last broadcast to the Nazi proxy. That Gemony is beginning to feel the pinch of Index, with her broadcast to the Nazi inch, seems to be the fact. If it en endeavors to keep up with the roce set by British, there ore fears in some quarters that the will be headed for a collopse.

British and France have rectifirmed the

At present word from Guardian correspondent is rather disconcerting. He tells of calling up of German reservists and of movements of troops to Italian colonies and strategic points. This leads some to believe that Italy and Germany may

NESTING IN THE NORTH

When white clouds rise from the smoking sne When bitter and keen the north winds blow, When icy fetters the waters hold And winter scenes to the eye unfold, The robin, his course so wisely planned, Is making his home in the warm South land.

One by one they sailed away
When Autumn skies were dull and gray;
And now 'neath the slaming Southern su
They feast and feast till the day is doneWhen Springtime calls they venture forth
For it's nesting time in the distant North.

In the languid South their voice is mute, No music sounds like a silver flute, But what a jubilant song pours jorth Whell they reach their home in the nestin Like exiles long on a foreign strand. They hail with joy their native land.

—Helen B. Anderson.

The above lines were suggested by reading one of Mr. A. Jones' delightful contributions from the Sunny South in which he tells of the dense flocks of robins congregating some miles south of Dayrona Beach.

FLOOD CONDITIONS ARE ACCUMULATING FLOOD CONDITIONS ARE ACCUMULATING, and it is pleasing to know that Belleville City Council is doing something about it, even if some people think measures taken are ineffective. No one desires to prevent a flood more than Mayor Bone and the members of the City Council and City Hall staff. Government engineers have been consulted and their recommendations followed—most everyone's opinion has been heard and suggestions noted—and if a flood occurs it will be most everyone's opinion has been heard gestions noted—and if a flood occurs i despite the good intentions of the City Co despite the good intentions of the City Council and the permanent city hall staff, in view of the tre-mendous property loss possible through a flood, besides loss of time and business, and inconven-ience a flood threat is no time for piesyme prac-tises or trying to save a nickle and lose a dollar. Let s concentrate on this flood problem and pre-vent it if possible.

OUT OF CANADA'S GOOD EARTH

Pessimists have been given rather a rough handling by the Toronto Financial Post and also by the Ottowa Journal, who note what Canada's good earth has given to the nation and the world.

Facts cannot lie. And here they are as quoted by the Journal from the Financial Post:

1. In 1938 production—gold, copper, lead, inc, nickel and other metals—totalled $322 millions.

zmc, nucket and other metota—totalied $322.

2. In the past year 38 new mines went into production, bringing the total of Conodian producers to 165.

The past year of the total of Conodian producers to 165.

The production of the production of the total state of the region of the read $12 millions per year, point got dround $12 millions per year, point of the read $12 millions per year, point of the read $12 millions leaf to 100 millions lost year; poid $15 millions to railways clane, $11 millions to power componies, Over $15 millions were spent with Canadian business alone.

5. In dividends, mines paid last year $98 millions, a return of about 15 percent of the estimated capital in the industry.
"It is a tremendous achievement; a silencing repartie iupon the croakers who talk about Canada 'going broke'."
These facts are a part of the real Canada.

No money is better spent than what is laid out for domestic satisfaction. A man is pleased that his wife is dressed as well as other people, and the wife is pleased that she is so well dressed.—
